

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, August 22, 2001

The Clarion Ledger (Jackson, MS)

Court: Tort reform possible

Owners reject state's offer for land

Hundreds gather in Ripley to attend 'Capital for a Day'

Editorials

Economy: Big bet, big political battle brewing

And ...: State military bases may be involved

Smithsonian: Old Capitol Museum choice is apt

Miss. prison reform not needed; leave satellites alone

Sun Herald (Biloxi, MS)

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal (Tupelo, MS)

First move from Jackson to Ripley deemed a success

'Worst firsts' get Health Summit focus

Mississippi's health -- Tupelo summit focuses on programs and perils

SID SALTER: Sun-N-Sand, storied oasis of legislators, dries up

Commercial Appeal (Memphis, TN)

In our national motto we trust

Centers help those looking for work, employers

Natchez Democrat (Natchez, MS)

Hattiesburg American (Hattiesburg, MS)

Tuck should spearhead state reforms

Governor promotes statewide workforce training program

Meridian Star (Meridian, MS)

Enterprise Journal (McComb, MS)

Tuck wants fair plan for redistricting

Editorials for Wednesday, Aug. 22, 2001

Jack Elliott: GOP has little to offer for 2003 election

Greenwood Commonwealth (Greenwood, MS)

Bolivar Commercial (Cleveland, MS)

The Washington Post (Washington, DC)